COMICCRAFT — EMPATHY MAP

==========

USER PERSONA: Priya, 22, College Student & Hobbyist Writer

SAYS

"I have so many story ideas but I can't draw."

"Hiring an artist is way too expensive for a college project."

"I wish there was a tool that could just turn my idea into a comic."

THINKS

"Will my story come out looking professional?"

"Will the AI understand what I'm trying to say?"

"Is it worth learning Photoshop just for this?"

DOES

Writes short stories in a diary

Searches Google for "free comic maker online"

Uses Canva templates but finds them too generic

Shares her stories on Instagram with no visuals

FEELS

Frustrated by the gap between imagination and ability

Excited by the potential of AI tools

Anxious about AI quality and whether it will capture her vision

PAIN POINTS

- Traditional comic creation needs drawing skills
- Free online tools offer only templates, not original art
- AI tools are complicated or require paid API keys

GAINS FROM COMICCRAFT

- Instant comic from a simple text prompt
- AI-generated unique illustrations for each panel
- Free — no API costs, no subscriptions
- Downloadable PDF for sharing and printing
